Notice Readers of The Connoisseur who desire to take advantage of the opportunities offered herein should address all letters on the subject to the Manager of the Heraldic Department, at the Offices of the Magazine, 95, Temple Chambers, Temple Avenue, E.G. Only replies that may be considered to be of general interest will be published in these columns. Those of a directly personal character, or in cases where the applicant may prefer a private answer, will be dealt with by post. Readers who desire to have pedigrees traced, the accuracy of armorial bearings enquired into, or otherwise to make use of the department, will be charged fees according to the amount of work involved. Particulars will be supplied on application. When asking information respecting genealogy or heraldry, it is desirable that the fullest details, so far as they may be already known to the applicant, should be set forth. Answers to Correspondents Heraldic Department 7.--A morganatic marriage is perfectly legal. It is merely a marriage between a member of a reigning or mediatised family, and one not of a reigning or mediatised family. By this marriage the wife is excluded from the family name, Arms, and title, and the children, though perfectly legitimate, lie under the same disabilities, and are incapable of inheriting and transmitting a right of succession to the titles, Sovereign privileges, and entailed estates of the family; but they are entitled to whatever may be settled on them by contract....
