By Kevin Anthony

Angel Baby. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 206 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Angel Baby A MOMent of Truth is about a song that was written and recorded in the late 1950s by Lynn Davis, who also happens to be my mother. Its more than just a malt shop melody that everyone recognizes as a one hit wonder. I heard my mom sing this to me when I was a child, and she told me that not only did she write it, but that she recorded it as well. Many songs that were written and recorded back in those days, were owned by some very big companies. What makes this one so unique is that the people, who owned this song, actually stole the artists voice. This song opened a port hole in the time and space continuum. The 1960s ushered in a new era of consciousness that would forever change our world, and AuthorPoet Jack Kerouac, who was the founder of the Beat Generation, found me from the other side. This book is about History, and some amazing discoveries I have found by looking into the past. The synchronicities and coincidences that you will find, while reading it,...
