Reviews

This publication will be worth purchasing. It really is written in simple terms instead of difficult to understand. It's been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly only right after I finished reading this ebook in which basically modified me, alter the way I believe.

SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2005. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New.. 279 x 218 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The author introduces new pedagogical approaches in teaching language arts, using fiction and poetry to enhance the student s critical thinking. This is a thoughtful, practical, and innovative book that will foster academic success - Maggie Yadegar, Associate Dean, National University, Los Angeles Campus A must have publication for the beginning teacher of English. The author gives explicit discussions, providing directions for formulating, presenting, and evaluating each phase of the lesson being taught - Lois Gibson, Associate Professor Education (Retired), Southeastern Louisiana University A teacher s guide to teaching middle school and high school English and building literacy skills in even the most reluctant readers. Lorraine LaCroix shows the reader how carefully chosen poems and fiction can hook otherwise apathetic English students - by making an emotional connection, the teacher makes her lessons personally relevant and important to each student, and therefore a perfect vehicle for teaching vocabulary, critical thinking skills, close reading skills, rhetorical writing skills, communication and public speaking skills.
