But I now shall give my travails in full, to all my friends on earth. On Sabbath morning, August 27th, 1854, my heart refused to beat, and after I had taken a warm shake of hands with my nearest and dearest relatives and friends, I at last asked this medium, whether he would be willing to grant me leave to converse with my friends through him or not, but I was so feeble that I could not make him understand; but I was made to rejoice in a moment, for the spirit of Fox, impressed the medium, and the answer was yes. By the medium, also, the spirit of Fox said, that I should use him as I should see proper; so then I went with my friends and the spirit of Fox, my attending physician, bore me immediate company. We went first into the first sphere, and it was dark to me, and everything appeared to be still--without much communication with each other; I could see nothing, as it were, only dark visions of human forms. After some time, we passed up to the second sphere, it appeared to be some lighter than it was in the first, it appeared to me as if day was just making its appearance in the east, as it appears to you on earth; so I could see something more here than I could in the first. And we...
