OCLC Number: (OCoLC)226964790 Subject: Wildfires -- Social aspects. Excerpt: . . . The Fire Information phone line ( recording ) is not updated during the day. FS updates at 6am and 6pm. Not enough for people who are affected. Running Springs: Sept. 10, 2003 At times the communication criteria of the Incident Management Team appeared to conflict with the publics information needs. Members of the fire information community reported trying to ensure the validity of the fire information message, to speak with one voice, and send out information that was rationally and cognitively structured in pre-determined time increments. Affected local residents, whom the team interviewed, reported that their search for information was urgent and emotionally driven because of what was at stake for them. They sought real-time information, but with far less concern on whether the information was officially sanctioned. This is not meant to imply that the public does not care about accuracy of information, but they do express an urgent need for real time information. The social-psychological processes...
