CANADIAN SYMPATHIES IN THE AMERICAN REBELLION (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Canadian Sympathies in the American Rebellion Though moved by a love of home, and home institutions, I am yet cosmopolitan to the very centre of impartiality; for I am both Canadian and American by descent and residence; have dwelt among the rouge and bleue of Canada, the pro-slavery and anti-slavery of the States. To know Lower Canada, is to know the more unfavorable of the four Provinces, if we except the city influence. She is divided, as to her American sympathies, into the Eastern Township Party, the French Country Party, and the City Cliques. The first is for you, the second against you, the third divided. The Townships are very largely populated by American descendants and foreigners allied with them by marriage. Though not generally annexationists, their sympathies are largely with you, and almost without exception with the negro; while the principles advanced by some, fugitive New Hampshire men, startle and shock them by disloyalty to northern and humanitarian principles. Annexation may be some time brought about; but it will be worthless to you, unless it emanates spontaneously from Canada. The minorities are some influential families of British lineage, and the laboring classes. The former have an erroneous notion of their responsibility to preserve British sentiment and exclude natural convictions of the propriety of good fellowship with you. You sometimes regret the loss of that kind of men whom you stigmatize skeddaddlers or scatterers, but they do not surpass in number, and are not to be compared in manliness to the laboring class you have drawn from us, while the corruption, their lawlessness, immorality and noisome politics produces is really deplorable. The French country affects...
