Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Calm Inquiry Into All the Objections Made to the Educational Provisions of the Factory Bill: Exhibiting the Nature, Tendency, and Object of the New Principles by Which the Dissenting Bodies Stand Opposed Thereto This Is exactly that fair and candid mode of testing the question now at issue which an opponent would desire. It neither embroils the question with objection to any peculiar teaching of the Christian religion, nor does it partially confine its scope, to a preference for any religious system adopted by man; it puts matters on that beautiful level of equality, which can be chargeable with no intolerance by any member of the human race on the face of the globe. Happily for the non-cosmopolites of this nation, they can claim a country as their own; that country is England, and that country has already, ages past, professed, by its own choice, its faith in the Christian religion: and to this, as a profession, to the present day it publicly adheres. Accordingly, the Head of the nation, by authority of the national sanction, punishes any person who shall dishonour God by publicly denying Him, or Jesus Christ, whom he hath sent. We therefore at once see, how much is involved in the predominance and enforcement of such new principles. The issue is all-important to the kingdom, and involves nothing less, in the extent and latitude to which the whole Dissenting Body are now carrying them, than the unchristianizing of the land. If there is any thing more than a name in being a Christian country, if the inheritance is an advantage which we would wish to leave to our children, we...
